SPRING EVENTS NOW ONLINE IN BURLCO NEWSLETTER

New Park Activities, Talks, Tours and Exhibits

Fly fishing lessons, a Geocaching GPS scavenger hunt and guided nature walks and canoe trips are a few of the many spring events planned from March through May now posted online in Burlington County's Cultural Affairs and Tourism newsletter.

The 11-page newsletter including calendar of events is available at www.co.burlington.nj.us. People without access to a computer may call the Cultural Affairs office for a copy at (609) 265-5068.

In March, upcoming events include the March 13 self-guided driving tour from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., "Writing Women Back into History," which features four sites associated with notable women in the county – Agnes Gilkerson Smith at Historic Smithville Park in Eastampton, Alice Stokes Paul at Paulsdale in Mount Laurel, Miriam Harker at Peachfield in Westampton, and Delia Biddle Pugh and Aline K. Wolcott at the Burlington County Historical Society in Burlington City.

April park activities include Geocaching, a GPS scavenger hunt, on April 18 from noon to 4 p.m. at Crystal Lake Park in Mansfield, and Fly Fishing on April 24 at Smithville Park.

In May, events include the reopening of the County Farmers Market on May 15 at the Agricultural Center in Moorestown, and Orienteering at Amico Island on May 16. #
